

It has been brought to my attention that KLOVE is in jeopardy of being taken off the air. It would be a great disservice to many individuals and families to remove something so wholesome. It's so nice to be able to listen to commentators who speak words of truth and wisdom from their hearts, and words that come from a God (from the Bible) that many believe and love. How wonderful to be driving in the car or listening to KLOVE at home and know you don't have to worry about the context of the songs to which your children are listening. Before listening to KLOVE I would have to change the station several times, not only because the music was offensive, but because the language the radio announcers were using were vulgar and offensive. I pray you will decide to leave KLOVE on the air. Thank you for taking the time to read my message. Debbie
